

MARYLAND DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
2018 APPLICATION TO TEMPORARILY TRANSFER A COMMERCIAL STRIPED BASS PERMIT OR ALLOCATION-ITQ FISHERY (Atlantic & Chesapeake Bay)

INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1.) The transferee (person receiving permit) must fill out Section A completely.
- 2.) The transferor (person transferring permit) must fill out Section B completely.
- 3.) The transferor must select: 1.) whether or not a permit is being transferred, and 2.) the percentage of the transferor's annual allocation that will be transferred to the transferee. Please note that a transferor's first available permit will be transferred to the transferee in cases of permit transfers.
- 4.) The transferee and/or transferor will not be required to be present at the Tawes Building Fisheries Office if this form is legally certified by a notary public. Proper identification is needed if submitting this in person at Tawes.
- 5.) Transferors may only transfer pounds to ITQ permit holders. They may transfer an ITQ permit with pounds if the transferee does not hold a commercial striped bass permit.
- 6.) Transferors may make up to four (4) allocation transfers for each year.
- 7.) Commercial striped bass permits, shares, and allocations may not be permanently transferred.
- 8.) Permits and allocations transferred may be used in the Chesapeake Bay only or the Atlantic only. Transferees may use any legal gear within the gear season, as long as the transferee holds the appropriate license. HLI license holders may only harvest their allocations with a hook and line.
- 9.) Common Pool permit holders may not receive transfer of ITQ permits or ITQ pounds.
- 10.) ITQ permit holders may not have Common Pool permits transferred to them.
