

Evaluate specific sites to consider that have positive attributes to siting

SmartDG+ includes locations that have positive attributes to siting distributed generation projects. Sites like brownfields, wastewater treatment plants and landfills might be suitable for a solar or wind project with limited siting efforts.